UK WILDCAT FANS WIN 2019

MARCH MADNESS FOOD DRIVE

Lynnhurst Members Collect over 600 food items for the Clients of the SLCM Food Pantry

April 7, 2019- Louisville, KY

Cheers echoed through the halls of Lynnhurst Church as another successful March Madness Food Drive came to an end on Sunday. Members were proud of their collection efforts and what it would mean for SLCM clients.

"This will mean so much for the clients that rely on our food pantry. Donations like this are so important to our cause," stated Joyce Whalin, Lynnhurst member and SLCM staff member.

Member, Anne Meyer, said, "I'm so proud of the accomplishments of this church family."

And what of the friendly rivalry between UK and UofL fans at Lynnhurst? Well that's another matter...

Cats fans were victorious over Cards fans, with a final score of 336 to 269.

Kentucky fan Nancy Shannon stated, "This is a momentous occasion. We are proud of our team." Shannon was later seen high-fiving other fans while running through the halls.

The Wildcats spent the 2019 food drive on a roller coaster, losing the first and third weeks, squeaking by in week two and week five, and blowing the Cards out of the water in week four.

It's been several years since Kentucky brought home the Food Drive trophy but according to fan, Rob Day, it was well worth the wait. "It's been so long, but we finally did it!" he cried, with tears glistening on his cheeks.

Cats fans weren't the only ones with tears in their eyes on Sunday. Louisville die-hard, Jim Maier, stated, "This is a tough loss for the Cards, but we played hard. There is no shame in this loss. We'll get them next year." Another distraught fan, Beverly Tiitsman, tearfully said, "At least they can't take our banners away."

Consistory President, Sharon Crosby, gave a helpful tip for Cats fans wishing to celebrate their victory. "In lieu of burning couches please consider donating the couches to one of the many missions here in Louisville. And, please, don't burn anything on Lynnhurst property."

And what do non-natives think of this year's March Madness Food Drive? Pastor Monica, a transplant from New England focused on the true winners of the food drive. She had this to say, "Congratulations to our UK fans, you are a blessing to all the people at SLCM that will receive food this month. Thank you to everyone who donated!"

This reporter couldn't have said it better herself.

Side Note: Except for Pastor Monica's quote, all quotes, etc. in this article are the creative exaggerations of your Church Administrator, having a little fun. No offense was meant and it was all in good fun.

Dear Friends in Christ,

The Christian Church \(Disciples of Christ\) website states: A church's identity must be firmly rooted in scripture and yet flexible enough to adapt to changes in culture and the shifting demands of mission. Early Christians in Jerusalem had to learn what it meant to be faithful in Antioch and Rome. The forebears of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ), as they moved from the frontier to the city, had to rethink such matters as congregational autonomy and the goal of 'restoring' the New Testament church. Today, we wrestle with what it means to be disciples of our Lord in a world that is increasingly pluralistic, globally connected, and yet so often violently divided. And so, we offer a succinct statement of identity, under girded by twelve distinct principles of what it means to be Disciples of Christ.

DISCIPLES OF CHRIST Statement of Faith

We are Disciples of Christ, a movement for wholeness in a fragmented world. As part of the one body of Christ, we welcome all to the Lord's Table as God has welcomed us.

1. We confess that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of the Living God, and proclaim him Lord and Savior of the world, requiring nothing more – and nothing less – as a basis of our life together.
2. We hold the centrality of scripture, recognizing that each person has the freedom – and the responsibility – to study God's Word within the community of the church.
3. We practice the baptism of believers, which emphasizes that God's grace demands a response of faith and discipleship, while also recognizing the baptism performed in other churches.
4. We gather for the Lord's Supper, as often as possible, experiencing at this table the gracious, forgiving presence of Jesus Christ.
5. We structure our community around the biblical idea of covenant, emphasizing not obedience to human authority but accountability to one another because of our shared obedience to Christ.
6. We participate in God's mission for the world, working with partners to heal the brokenness of creation and bring justice and peace to the whole human family.
7. We hear a special calling to make visible the unity of all Christians, proclaiming that in our diversity we belong to one another because we commonly belong to Christ.
8. We witness to the Gospel of God's saving love for the world in Jesus Christ, while continuing to struggle with how God's love may be known to others in different ways.
9. We affirm the priesthood of all believers, rejoicing in the gifts of the Holy Spirit – which include the gift of leadership – that God has given for the common good.
10. We celebrate the diversity of our common life, affirming our different histories, styles of worship, and forms of service.
11. We give thanks that each congregation, where Christ is present through faith, is truly the church, affirming as well that God's church and God's mission stretch from our doorsteps to the ends of the earth.

We anticipate God's coming reign, seeking to serve the God – Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer – whose loving dominion has no end.

What does this statement of faith tell us about being a community of faith?

Blessings on the journey,

Pastor Monica
