Friends in Christ,

The word creed derives from the Latin credo, meaning, "I believe." The purpose of any form of the Creed is to provide a basic, succinct statement of the faith. Moreover, the Creeds are structured on the fundamental belief in the Trinity and the "work" of each of the three Persons: The Father and creation; the Son and redemption; and the Holy Spirit and sanctification (a big theological word that means the process of God's continuing work in Christians through the power of the Holy Spirit).

Each Wednesday evening during Lent we will recite together a creed or statement of faith. This week we will recite the Apostle's Creed. The origin of the Apostles' Creed is less clear than that of the Nicene Creed. The most common view is that it was originally developed in the first or second century and was influenced later by the Nicene Creed. The earliest historical evidence of the creed's existence is in a letter written by the Council of Milan in 390 A.D. Almost every denomination has a slightly different version of the Apostles' Creed. Note: the reference to "the holy catholic Church" refers to the universal church, not the denomination.

Here is the ecumenical version of the Apostle's Creed:

THE APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the ather almighty, creator of heaven and earth.	he ascended into heaven, he is seated at the right hand of the Father, and he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead.	I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.
On the third day he rose again; What does this creed tell us about Jesus?

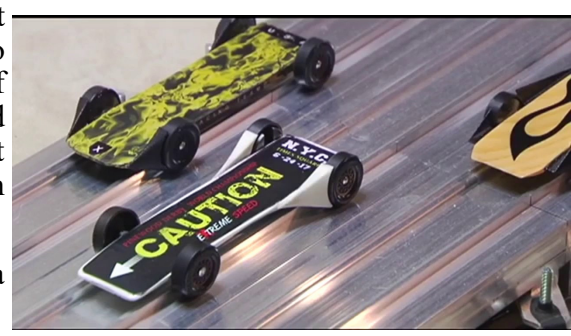

Blessings on the journey,
Pastor Monica

TROOP 209 PINEWOOD DERBY! THIS SUNDAY, MARCH 17th!

OK RACE FANS! TIME TO BRING IT!

The big day is here. Troop 209's Annual Pinewood Derby is this Sunday, March 17th right after church in the Fellowship Hall. The Scouts have invited us to join them in this exciting pastime and Lynnhurst needs to represent! The scouts will have cars available for use. Start thinking about who YOU want to challenge. And even if you don't want to race, please come out and enjoy the fun. We want to show the Scouts that we support them and that we are interested in their events! This is going to be tons of fun!

They will also sell simple lunch food for a fundraiser, so come hungry.

MEDIA RELEASE FORMS! OOPS! LETS TRY THIS AGAIN...

Media release forms will be available at the front of the Sanctuary this Sunday (I Promise!). If you are ok with your picture being used, please fill out a form for each member of your family. With our increased presence on Facebook and the new update of the website, we will be using more pictures from church events. For this reason we need these permission forms filled out allowing us to use pictures on social media, brochures, newsletters, etc. This is especially important for minors.

LYNNHURST WEBSITE!

The Lynnhurst Church official website (lynnhurstchurch.org) has been newly updated and redesigned and is now live and ready! Check it out when you get a chance. Share a link to it on Facebook and spread the word. More updates still to come! We would love to have info about our activities and Sunday School classes on the website so please send those in as well!

TRANSPORTATION FOR LENTEN FELLOWSHIP

If anyone needs a ride to our Wednesday Lenten Fellowships, please contact the Church Office or Sharon Crosby. We want everyone to have the opportunity to come fellowship with us.

Oebaki (pronounced Oe-ba-key) is a small village in West Timor, Indonesia. It is considered one of the poorest communities in the country. The prefix "Oe" means water, but the drought has stolen this town's identity. Poverty abounds, and families struggle to feed their children.

Imagine having a garden, but not being able to feed your family, or digging into the sand of a dry river bed in search of drinking water.

Imagine your child has been diagnosed with stunted growth, a preventable early childhood condition with lifelong consequences.

Now imagine the world the way God intends.

God imagines a world where all are fed, everyone has access to clean water, and all children grow up healthy. The author of Ephesians writes, "Now to God be the glory, who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine..." (Ephesians 3:20).

Your gifts to One Great Hour of sharing help make this world look more like the world God imagines. In Oebaki, your gifts help support well-trained savings and loan groups that allow families to buy resilient vegetable seeds for farming, yarn for weaving stunningly beautiful traditional fabric, and egg-laying chickens for a sustainable source of protein essential to prevent child stunting. These enterprises produce excess goods that families sell to generate income.

Today in Oebaki, those who once struggled during the dry season and drought can now maintain a diversified diet by eating stored root vegetables from the last harvest, supplemented with greens purchased at the market.

Nelci Tlonaen works hard in Oebaki with her husband and three children—two in elementary school and one entering high school. Despite the current drought, she feels confident that her family will persevere. "Even now, I can afford clothes and food for my children. I don't have any difficulty paying for their school."

That's what happens when we imagine the world as God intends. Through your gifts, a new reality exists for families in Oebaki and around the world. Please give generously!

The Board of Directors of the Indiana Kentucky Conference of the United Church of Christ requests your presence and prayers in joyful celebration of the
